Sharjah: Police are investigating the alleged murder of an Emirati man by a group of Azerbaijani men.

A police source told Gulf News that an Emirati man was stabbed to death by group of Azerbaijani men in Sharjah on Saturday evening. Police said the incident happened at Kavkaz restaurant on Al Wahda Street, and eight Azerbaijani men were arrested.

Police said the accused men were taken to the Criminal and Investigation Department in Sharjah for interrogation.

"It seems an argument started between the accused and the victim which led to the fight that ended with stabbing the Emirati man to death," a police source said.

Police said this restaurant chain, one in Sharjah and the other in Bur Dubai, are mostly visited by Russians, Azerbaijanis and Uzbeks.

Police said the unidentified man died on spot.
