

New Zealand eases visa rule for UAE citizens

Visas will be given to citizens on arrival in New Zealand

- WAM
- Published: 01:02 August 5, 2010

Abu Dhabi: The UAE Ministry of Foreign Affairs announced that UAE citizens can now travel to New Zealand for tourism or work for three months without the need to obtain prior visas.

The ministry said visas will be given to citizens on arrival in New Zealand. This also applies to UAE diplomats and holders of official passports.

© Gulf News 2010