He said the theft reports, each from different police stations, came within a short period of time.

He said the police's search for the suspects led to one of the teenagers who admitted the crime and led them to his three accomplices.

He said police arrested the other three teenagers in their homes.

"They informed police about the shops and the cars which they robbed," he added.

During the police investigation, officers retrieved the stolen items in the homes of the suspects, he said.

"The case was referred to the public prosecutor," he added.
