Dubai: People stranded at UAE airports due to the volcanic ash will be issued the 96 hours visa at the airport, in an effort to ease their travelling procedures.

Lieutenant General Shaikh Saif Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Interior, has instructed concerned authorities to facilitate the visa process for people affected by the crisis.

Affected people can approach the passport control officer upon their arrival at the airport and can be issued visa according to the 96 hours visa rules.

Shaikh Saif's humanitarian initiative comes in line with the UAE's keenness to help affected people, ease their visa procedures and alleviate their ordeal.
